In case of accidents, all consequential repairs may also be permitted in the country in which the accident takes place if it is found expedient and economical to do so. In the case of total loss, or where it is considered that repairs will be uneconomical, the salvage shall have to be taken back to the country the passenger vehicle belongs to.

ARTICLE XIII

(1) In the event of a passenger vehicle being disabled on the road or otherwise in distress in the host country, all necessary facilities for passenger vehicle will be provided by the host country for transit of the passenger, any rescue or salvage operation that may be involved and other assistance that may be required.

(2) The operator of the passenger vehicle shall be responsible for all expenses incurred on account of the facilities so provided under clause (1) above and the operator may be permitted to make remittances on account of expenses so incurred.

ARTICLE XIV

(1) Each country will provide facilities to an authorised insurance company of the other country to carry out all necessary steps such as survey, assessment, investigation and settlement of claims and return of salvage as an agent of the concerned insurer of the other country and provide for remittance of money in connection with such operations.

(2) In the event of an accident resulting in damage to a third party property or loss of life or injuries to third parties, each country shall provide facilities to the persons concerned for defence of civil suits for damage or compensation payment of legal fees and for incurring travel and other incidental expenses to allow parties to the suit and necessary witnesses and also for payments of any amount which may be agreed between the parties, by way of compromise or out of courts settlement. The operator of a passenger vehicle shall also be given the facility to execute bonds for release from police custody of persons and of vehicles and also for defence of any criminal action arising out of the accident.

ARTICLE XV

The operators of passenger vehicles of each country shall be permitted to open their respective branch office or appoint their agent at the point of origin and destination in both countries subject to approval by the respective competent authorities of the two countries.

ARTICLE XVI

(1) The representatives of the two Governments shall consult each other as and when necessary in connection with the implementation of this Agreement.

(2) The details of operation of passenger vehicles will be enumerated in a Protocol to be signed between the two Governments.

(3) Differences, if any, on the interpretation of this Agreement will be resolved through consultations between the parties.

ARTICLE XVII

This Agreement shall come into force on the date of its signing and shall remain valid for a period of five years unless terminated earlier by either Government by giving three months notice in writing to the other. There will be a comprehensive review of the working of the Agreement at the end of the first year of operation. The validity of the Agreement can be extended for five years at a time by mutual consent subject to such modifications as may be agreed upon.

ARTICLE XVIII

Nothing in the Agreement shall prevent either Government from suspending the validity of all or any authorization or prohibiting movement of passenger vehicles on the specified routes in the interest of national security.
IN WITNESS OF WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized for the purpose have signed this Agreement.

Done at Dhaka, on the Sixth day of June, 2015, in two originals in Hindi, English and Bangla Languages, all the texts being equally authentic. In case of divergence, the English text shall prevail.
